

A well-spread subnetwork can closely estimate a denser network's mean $\text{PM}_{2.5}$

Adding more sensors gives diminishing returns beyond $n = 10-15$